GARY POWERS, U-2 PILOT, ENDS POST WITH CIA

Washington, Nov. 2 (UPI)—Former U-2 Pilot Francis Gary Powers has resigned from the Central Intelligence agency, it was learned today. One source said he left the agency because "his work was finished."

Powers quit the CIA on Oct. 6, eight days short of another U-2 flight over Cuba which produced the first hard evidence of Russian missile bases there.

The 33-year-old flier had been working at CIA headquarters here since his return to Washington from a Russian prison last winter. He was a CIA employee when he flew his ill-fated surveillance mission over the Soviet Union on May 1, 1960.
